THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 30.

The Restless Small Boy in Church.

He who has passed 1408,
And he who has 1409
Is rattling his heels;
How many he feels.
Our will - we're in church!
First, he creeps quite flat.
A few steps, his feet
Bowed low in a swoon,
By a quick backward motion,
Tosses his small boy in church!

Then, earnest and still,
He attends with a will,
While the story is told
Of some old hero's bold;
Our dear though full boy is church!

But our glad surprise
At his thoughtful eyes
Is turned to despair,
As he twists his hair
On his little sister in church.

Still each saucy trick flies
A look from the eyes
Of his mother so dear,
Who thinks best to sit near
Her mischievous boy in church!

Another trick comes?
Yes, he's fingers he drums,
Or his coat is spread
All over his head,
And still we take him to church!

He's trouble me? Yes,
That I'm bound to confess;
But God made the boys,
With their fun and their noise,
And he surely wants them in church!

Sah children, you know,
Look, long years ago
Did not trouble the L. R.
Though disciples were bored;
Sah we'll keep them near Him in church!
